

Drainage Solutions

Brewsters Head Office is shared with Auger, our sister company, who offer a complete menu of drainage solutions. Close liaison between Auger's team of experts who are all WRc Certified and our own team of Structural Engineers means that claims which involve quite often complex drainage defects are dealt with focusing on accurate drainage repairs and cost effective solutions via a single point of contact.

Benefits

- State of the art 'pen technology'
- Trained personnel with WRc Accreditation
- Experience in commercial and multi property claims
- Customer Service and Complaints Procedure in accordance with FSA

Key Features

- Cost Effective – savings achieved through correct investigation and astute management
- Focus on reduction in elapsed time resulting in reduced costs
- Quality Service – compliance and quality, focusing on 'treating customers fairly'
- Reporting & I.T. – all projects electronically tracked
- Client portal giving real time job status and account management information
- National Coverage

